

Quick Start: How to Set Up the G-mee Co-pilot

A. On the G-mee Connect Pro or G-mee Play Pro

| | | | |
|--|--|---|---|
| <h3>1 Set up and connect to a Wi-Fi</h3> <ul style="list-style-type: none">Set up basic settings: language, date, time, and screen lockAccept Google's terms and conditionsConnect to a Wi-Fi Network  | <h3>2 Update Software</h3> <ul style="list-style-type: none">Update your G-mee device to the latest software version. Go to Settings > System > System Update > Check for Update > Update > Restart  | <h3>3 Allow Permissions</h3> <ul style="list-style-type: none">Allow Permissions for: Accessibility, Device and app notifications. Open the G-mee App > Scan QR to allow the permissions.Set permission for Location as "allow all the time"Allow Usage Access. Go to Settings > Apps > Special App Access Usage Access <small>*Use 2023 as the default G-mee PIN. Please reset the PIN after set up</small>  | <h3>4 Connect to the Co-pilot</h3> <ul style="list-style-type: none">Open the G-mee AppTap "Scan QR" and scan the QR code from the Co-pilot app on your phone (guardian's phone) to connect  |
|--|--|---|---|

B. On your own smartphone

| | |
|--|--|
| <h3>1 Sign Up for a Co-Pilot Account</h3> Install the app on your phone to start managing the G-mee Connect Pro or G-mee Play Pro remotely.  Get it on Google Play  Get it on the App Store  | <h3>2 Download the G-mee Co-Pilot App</h3> After installing the app, create a Co-Pilot account  |
| <h3>3 Approve Permissions on the G-mee Device</h3> Please follow instructions for the G-mee device  | <h3>4 Scan the QR code on the G-mee device</h3> <ul style="list-style-type: none">After creating a Co-Pilot Account, select Remote Device ControlsTap "Add G-mee Device"Scan the QR code on the G-mee Device  |